

B. General Plan Map Conformity

- i. The RDA Plan map has several areas that do not align with the General Plan Land Use Map categories for the area. The RDA Plan map reflects a careful analysis of the wishes of stakeholders and an analysis of the redevelopment area's role in the city. The map is more detailed than the General Plan Land Use Map covering. An update to the General Plan Land Use Map for these areas should be assessed as individual projects are proposed.
