- Gilbert Salazar, Maintenance Foreman
- Mary Witkofski, Comm Program Mgr

Winner in the Mid-Management Category:

Mike Riggs,

“His dedication to the City and his community is evident in his willingness to assist and take on whatever task is needed and always with a pleasant attitude and smiling face. He is resourceful, respectful, and a huge asset to both our organization and our City. He figures out a way to make things happen. He helps out all of the other City departments and many people go to him with issues because people know they can count on him. He is regularly working with the community groups to help them have a great experience with the City, for example, his work with the Boy Scouts coordinating Eagle service projects.”

Public Safety Category:

- Jorge Del Muro, Firefighter

Winner in the Public Safety Category:

Jorge Del Muro, Firefighter

“He goes above and beyond the requirements of a firefighter and brings an infectious, positive attitude to work every shift and consistently delivers outstanding service both to our external and internal customers. He is always first to raise his hand to help which showcases his pride, diligence and hard work that he brings to our department. He was the chairman of the uniform committee which was an enormous task and he expertly managed, worked diligently and kept focused. His dedication, pride, relationship building and proficiency on managing and leading larger projects makes him an asset to our department.”

Part Time Category:

- Kathy Erwin, Customer Svc Rep

Winner in the Part Time Category:

Kathy Erwin, Customer Svc Rep

“She is a prime example of excellence. She has dedicated over ten years to the City of Maricopa and her knowledge, professionalism and hard work is to show for it. She is thorough in her work ethic and goes above and beyond to make sure that a task is completed in its entirety. She does not only possess an excellent work ethic, she also is very kind and respectful to her fellow co-workers. She is an excellent employee, co-worker and friend, which creates strong teamwork. I admire her excellence.”
