4. Report from the Mayor

Mayor Price reported attending a Firefighter's Convention in Washington D.C. and added he took the opportunity to visit with Congresswoman Kirkpatrick, Congressman Gosar, Senator Flake, and Senator McCain. He highlighted that Senator McCain agreed to sign unto the Tiger Grant Request Letter and emphasized the importance of networking. Next, he reported on the joint meeting with the 2040 Vision Steering Committee and thanked the participants for their work.

Mayor Price invited Police Chief Stahl to the front and announced that the Maricopa Police Department was awarded accreditation by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA). Chief Stahl stated that the accreditation allows the department to follow the best-practices according to nationwide standards. He briefly explained the process of attaining accreditation. He noted it is a voluntary accreditation and while it has no direct financial benefits, it helps when applying for grants. He thanked Mayor Price and the members of the Council, present and past. He thanked City Manager Rose, the police officers, and the staff involved. He gave special thanks to Police Administrative Assistant Tim Gomez, and Police Officer Jenny Alcidez. He added that he is not satisfied and that in 3 years they will pursue the gold standard award. Mayor Price congratulated the police department.

5. Report from the City Manager

City Manager Rose announced that Economic Development Specialist Denyse Airheart would be assuming the role of Interim Economic Development Director.

6. Call to the Public

Maricopa Relay for Life organizer Ann Norby approached the podium and addressed the Mayor and Council. She stated the Relay for Life would be Saturday, April 25 at 6 p.m. and gave a brief summary of the activities planned. She added that, tomorrow (April 22, 2015,) Firehouse Subs would donate 15% of purchases to the Relay for Life. She acknowledged the meeting attendees who put work into the Relay for Life and thanked them for their efforts.

Gaby Potter took the podium and addressed the Mayor and Council. She gave a summary of the scheduled events and encouraged attendance. Mrs. Potter and Mrs. Norby presented Relay for Life shirts to the Mayor, Council and City Manager Rose.

Councilmember Henry Wade approached the podium and addressed the Mayor and Council. He invited Lee Anne Clark to join him and reported attending the Maricopa High School prom dress fashion show. He and Mrs. Clark commended the youth who participated in the event.
