

Instructions:

- 1. Allow three weeks prior to performance evaluation meeting to review Employee Self Evaluations
- 2. Verify/complete General Information.
- Review with the employee the employee's job description, job standards (expectations/objectives/duties) for the rating cycle to ensure the appraisal relates to the specific responsibilities, job assignments, and standards that were conveyed to the employee for the rating cycle.
- 4. Base the appraisal on the employee's performance during the entire review period, not isolated incidents or performance prior to the current review period. Obtain/review necessary input and supporting data.
- 5. Rate each factor in relation to the standards established and the guidelines listed on the form for each rating.
- 6. Provide an overall rating based on the rating of the individual factors, adherence to significant performance standards, and accomplishment of essential functions. Each factor need not be of equal weight but comments should justify significant differences impacting the overall rating.
- 7. Assess employee strengths and identify opportunities where the employee could improve or requires additional knowledge or skill. Include projected development needs to meet anticipated assignments during the next rating period. Obtain employee input regarding their training needs. When rating employees, consider their participation and willingness to participate in employee development opportunities.
- 8. The comments sections should be used to: support performance ratings, indicate problem areas, and provide guidance to employees on how to improve performance. Comments MUST be provided for Highly Proficient or Non-Quality ratings, and are highly recommended for all other ratings. Supervisors, reviewing Directors and employee comments are to be relevant and job related.
- 9. Discuss/obtain comments and signature/date of reviewing Director before discussion with employee.
- 10. Sign/date the form, meet with employee to discuss the rating, and obtain the employee's signature/date/comments. Arrange for reviewing Director discussion if requested.
- 11. Update if appropriate with the employee the job description, essential job functions, and performance standards/objectives for the next rating cycle.
- 12. Complete Career Development Plan
