Program or Project Name: National Youth Education Program
Purpose of Grant (brief statement): To develop a mentorship program for juniors and seniors in high school to work with retired and current teachers to help drive more students into the education profession. The program will target minority students in the hopes of having more minority teachers in the future that will be able to better engage and instruct minority students in the future. In AZ, African American, Hispanic, and Native American students are the worst performing. One the reason is the lack of connectedness with the teachers.
Beginning and Ending Date of Program or Project: October 1 st , 2018 – September 30 th , 2019
Amount Requested: $75,000 Total Cost: $85,000
Geographic Area Served: Maricopa and South Phoenix Valley
