8. Regular Agenda and/or Public Hearings

- 8.1 MISC 20-07 The Mayor and City Council shall discuss and possibly take action on adopting a tentative budget for fiscal year 2020-2021 (FY20-21) and the 5-Year Capital Improvement Plan. Discussion and Action.

City Manager Horst gave highlights of the tentative operating budget. He discussed the following achievements: the reauthorization of the risk management insurance and services, the reauthorization of health management insurance, the bond refund that would allow a reduction of the secondary property tax rate, taking over the waste transfer station and a multitude of other small cost savings. He reiterated some of the public projects and economic development. He discussed MEDA, the North Santa Cruz Wash preliminary design concept plan and the FEMA CLOMR application which could take out 11.2 square miles out of the flood plain. He reiterated that one of the most exciting thing was the Council's directive to reduce taxes. He discussed the COVID-19 contingency. He thanked the Mayor, Council, the Budget and Finance staff, the department heads and staff. He opened the floor for questions.

Mayor Price stated that, as member of the Finance and Operations Subcommittee along with Councilmember Manfredi and Vice Mayor Smith, they reviewed the tentative operating budget and the Capital Improvement Plan in depth and elaborated.

Gusse thanked the subcommittee members. She inquired about memberships to the Arizona Mexico Commission (AMC) and the Canada Arizona Business Council (CABC). Mr. Horst elaborated. Councilwoman Gusse proposed eliminating membership to both organizations. Discussion ensued. Councilmember Brown supported discontinuing the memberships and elaborated. Councilmember Vitiello commented on his experience with CABC and supported continuing membership. Vice Mayor Smith reported on the CABC meetings she attended and commended the networking. She stated she would like more information about the benefits of CABC and supported discontinuing membership to AMC. Councilmember Wade reported on his experience attending CABC meetings and commended the networking and elaborated. He stated he would also like continued membership to AMC and elaborated. Councilmember Manfredi supported cancelling membership to both organizations and added the Greater Phoenix Economic Council, GPEC.

Mayor Price explained his experience with economic development organizations. He elaborated on the direct and indirect benefits and stated he would be hesitant to end those relationships. Discussion ensued. Councilwoman Gusse asked if the possibility for Maricopa Economic Development Alliance, MEDA to take over the membership had been explored. She stated she would like to have more information and asked whether the memberships could be carved out for review later. Mr. Horst responded there was time to get more information because the final budget would be approved in late June and elaborated. Discussion ensued. Vice Mayor Smith suggested she and Councilwoman Gusse could have individual memberships to AMC and forgo the membership as a Council. She commended the City's budgetary process and decision making.

Councilmember Wade motioned to approve the tentative budget and to carve out the memberships to the Arizona Canada Business Council and the Arizona Mexico Commission until further information is gathered. Councilmember Brown requested that GPEC be added into the motion.

Councilmember Wade restated his motion to approve the tentative budget and to carve out the memberships to the Arizona Canada Business Council, the Arizona Mexico Commission and the Greater Phoenix Economic Council until further information was gathered.

A motion was made by Councilmember Wade, seconded by Vice Mayor Smith, that this Miscellaneous Item be Approved as Amended. The motion carried by a unanimous vote.
