Discussion and Action.

Portable radios are essential communications equipment used by firefighters on all emergency incidents and during day-to-day operations. The purchase of the radios will support the City Council Strategic Plan, the Regional Wireless Cooperative’s radio frequency plan, and allows the Fire Department to expand its regional interoperable communications capabilities.

Phoenix Fire has worked with Motorola to develop a dual band radio that is safer for fire fighters to use in a hazardous environment. Some of the current safety features are 50% louder speaker for use in a noisy environment and dual microphones that helps to cancel ambient noise. The APX 7000XE is recommended by Phoenix and the Regional Wireless System.

Approval of this request provides quality portable radios for our first responders to use in emergency operations.
