A Resolution of the Mayor and City Council of the City of Maricopa, Arizona, creating the Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee, establishing the requirements for members of the committee and setting forth the goals for the committee. Discussion and Action.

The City values the input of its citizens and believes that creating a Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee as a means of public input is beneficial to the City. The Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee, consisting of seven members, will act in an advisory capacity to City Council related to the City's parks, recreation, trails and open spaces and will be called upon to accomplish the goals set forth for the committee.

Staff recommends approval of this Resolution creating the Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee, establishing the requirements for the committee members and setting the goals for the committee as outline on the attached resolution.
